

Please don't permit BPL unless/until interference in the 2-80mhz band is incontrovertibly demonstrated to be nil (perhaps something like rf fields in the 2-80mhz freq range not being detectable more than several feet beyond any powerline or component. If that hurdle can be overcome, then perhaps BPL will be acceptable. Until such demonstrated lack of interference, I strongly recommend BPL not be allowed.